

Room & Resource Reservation

Easy and flexible booking for rooms, resources and more

Maximise Your Potential

With Monitor's flexible and configurable booking and reservation system, anything can be reserved, from resources to rooms. Whether you charge users for time or provide free access, Monitor will help you maximise the assets you already have, all while minimising the work you have to do.

Rooms

The potential value a single room could bring to your organisation may surprise you.

Resources & Assets

Utilise under-used assets and resources while quickly recovering the cost of your investments.

People Power

Hire out your expert staff as consultants and assistants.

As Flexible As You Need

Monitor Reservation gives you ultimate flexibility. With a spectrum of options between self-service and entirely admin-controlled, we've worked hard to take the burden away from your staff without removing their control.

Easy for Users, Easy for You

Multiple user types can be configured, whether in groups or as individuals. For frequent users, bookings can be confirmed through existing access or ID cards. Guest users are easy to set up with one-off bookings. All bookings are updated in real time, meaning everyone's on the same page as soon as your booking is made.

Reserve Anything

Conference rooms, sports grounds, swimming lanes, anything that can be represented as a block of time can be handled by Monitor Reservation. You can even outsource tasks by booking the time of specialists and consultants, or ensure your people are working on the right projects at the right time.

Organise, Customise, Monetise

Whether you're wanting to create a revenue stream or simply organise your facilities, it's all easy with Monitor Reservation. Maximising your resources doesn't necessarily mean you have to make money – it's about making the most of what you've got while minimising time spent managing.

Works With You

Our aim is to make organising and monetising your resources effortless. With easy integration to Microsoft, Apple and Google calendars, your bookings work inside the systems and software you're familiar with. The emails notification system of booking reminders, cancellations and payment options ensure friends and colleagues won't forget that important meeting.
